Letters from London.

LONDON. January 7, 1879. There is a lull among the bondholders. They are quietly walking for the action of the Legislature. "For what you are about the Council of Foreign Bondholders, "may the Lord make you truly thankful." It was necessary to give this advice, because I have my doubts as to whether the bondholders will be in a fitting frame of mind to utter any "grace after meat" when they receive the "broken wittles" which the Legislature proposes to dole out.

Being frequently asked what the Legislature is going to do, I always keep within statesmen are guilty of, they will not break have one object—viz., to reduce the annual $1,000, third mortgage at $3 on every $1,000, the second commandment. Baring. I doubt whether in the entire history of financial transactions any State or nation has ever had a more kindly-disposed and generous set of creditors to deal with than has Virginia. The hotel in which our friend J. B. Dunn, Esq., of Petersburg, is staying is right opposite to the ancient Church of St. Sepulchre, wherein is buried that doughty warrior Sir John Smith, " Admiral of New Englande," of Pocahontas fame. LONDON, January 9, 1879. A cablegram received here vesterday announces that the Legislature has convened a meeting of bondholders to be held in Richmond on the 22d instant. As I said in my last letter, Mr. John Collinson will probably be the only London bondbolder present. Mr. McCulloch and the New York representatives of Messrs. Baring will, however, no doubt attend. It is to be hoped that previous to the conference Messrs. Collinson and McCulloch may meet and agree to one definite proposal on behalf of the twelve months there were 1.093 violent Council of Foreign Bondholders and the Funding Association-otherwise I fear the drowned. Texas doesn't get away with 'conference?' may not amount to much more than the memorable one which resulted in nothing but the solemn decision that a newspaper reporter who was a bondholder had no rights which his fellow-bondholders were bound to respect.

The attidude of Messrs. Baring appears to have been misunderstood by Mr. Bouverie and the Council of Foreign Bondholders. When the Council drew up their scheme it was shown to Messrs. Baring, who simply said that it contained some good features, and that they should not oppose it. Upon this Mr. Bouverie seems to have concluded that Messrs. Baring in common with the rest of the muchmaligned bondholders.

Mr. J. B. Dunn, of Petersburg, who is daily in association with prominent business-men in the city, remarked to me yesterday that, "if the members of the Legislature could only realize the good that would be done to Virginia by the settlement of the State-debt question there is not a man in the whole crowd who would not work night and day to promote a satisfactory arrange-ment." OPINION OF ATTORNEY-GENERAL AS TO PAY MENT OF THE POLL-TAX. COMMONWBALTH OF VIRGINIA, ) ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OFFICE, RICHMOND, January 22, 1879.

J. G. Mason, Esq., Fredericksburg, Va.: Dear Sir,-Your letter of the 21st (yester day) is received. In answer thereto will say that the capitation-tax required to be paid before voting at the special congres-sional election to be held in your district on the 23d instant is the tax for 1878, assessed between the 1st day of February and the 1st day of July of that year, and payable on and after the last-named day. The fiscal year has nothing to do with the ported a bill making a number of changes right of suffrage. The "preceding year' is the one indicated and declared in the Constitution and law. Whenever and wherever an election occurs after the first day of January in any year, for any office made elective by the people, the capitation-tax required to be paid before voting is the tax of the next preceding year.

As a matter of construction purely, this conclusion seems irresistible; but it does not depend alone upon construction.

By the 7th clause of the 9th section of chapter 15 of the Code of 1873, page 194, it is declared that "unless otherwise expressed, the word month shall be construed to mean a calendar month, and the year alone shall be equivalent to the expression, "year of our Lord." Nething is left to construction. The legislative will is declared.

In this there is no hard-hip to the voter, nor deprivation of any right. He has from the 1st day of July of the preceding year up to and including the day be well asked and considered, whether he franchise.

I am very truly yours, . JAMES G. FIELD, Attorney-General.

of No. 1 Livingston Place, New York, dated September 5, 1878.]

"I have prescribed the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER in a large number of cases, and always with the most gratifying results. In the various diseases of the urinary organs, the kidneys, bladder, and urethra, retention of the urine, diabetes and functional diseases of the kidneys, the results obtained ARE WITHOUT PARALLEL IN THE USE OF ANY REMEDY, AND BUT FOR THE EVIDENCE FURNISHED BY MY OWN EXPERIENCE I COULD SCARCELY CREDIT THEM.

"I know of no other remedial agent capable of producing such results, and this, too, without disturbance of any description; indeed, the whole system is toned and benefited in a short time by the moderate use of this water. September 5, 1878.

With the view of testing its capacity as a solvent of urinary calculi, I have made several experiments. A very large calculus was placed in a glass of the water, and in a half hour a large part of the surface softened and removed; and had it not been taken out, would have been entirely destroyed. Several enables several to the consideration of the character were complete. ral smaller stones of this character were complete ly disselved in a short time by these waters."

obtaining relief. On the 10th of October he came under my treatment in a very distressed condition. I put him at once upon the Buffalo Lithia Water, Spring No. 2. In some ten or tweive days his most painful symptoms were allayed, and his improvement was rapid and steady. In the course of a month he was entirely relieved, and to the present time there is no indication of any return of his distressive symptoms. These are certainly very retressing symptoms. These are certainly very remarkable waters."

These waters, in cases of one dozen hat-known bottles, $5 per case at the Springs; at Richmond, $5.50 per case.
